Additional documentation required

1. Personal essay . In no more than 1000 words, address the following topics: your personal interests, general goals, career goals, and aviation goals; any special qualifications you may have to pursue these goals; what sparked your initial interest in aviation; what aviation related activities you have participated in (including employment) that mean the most to you; how this scholarship will help you achieve your goals; any obstacles you have had to overcome to start your training and to continue flying. And lastly, how you intend to contribute to the Ninety-Nines and to the aviation community in general.
2. Budget Information . Please provide a budget of anticipated expenses for the rating sought, anticipated funding to meet these expenses, and indicating whether you own or intend to rent an aircraft. The budget submitted should be signed by the flight school or independent instructor you plan to use to obtain the rating. The list of funds should include any other anticipated financial aid. If there are any special circumstances regarding your financial need, briefly list them.

TERMS

As the recipient, you must complete the rating appropriate to your award within one year of the award date, and your status will be reviewed. Special adverse circumstances will be considered if this goal is not met. Copies of your logbook shall be provided monthly, along with a monthly report from the instructor during this year. If your progress is not acceptable to the Mount Shasta 99s, all funds paid toward achieving your rating must be reimbursed to Mount Shasta NinetyNines Aviation Scholarship fund within 60 days of that decision by the scholarship committee. The scholarship funds will be paid directly to the flight school or independent flight instructor conducting the training. Receipts showing hours flown and signed by both student and instructor must be submitted before funds are paid to the instructor or flight school.
