The Mount Shasta Aviation Scholarship Application Packet

Application Deadline: PENDING 2024

Criteria: Female, soloed, FAA medical certificate, resident of one the following counties, Shasta, Trinity, Siskiyou, Modoc, Tehama, Glenn or Butte.

Applicants should be planning to make aviation a vocation, or an avocation that will contribute to the 99's mission of encouraging women to enter the world of aviation.

To be eligible for the Private Pilot or Light Sport Pilot Scholarship applicants must

1. Be a female student pilot that has soloed and is ready to begin cross-country training.
2. Possess a current Class III FAA Medical Certificate for Private Pilot, or California Driver's License for Light Sport
3. Be a member of Ninety-Nines, Inc. in good standing for at least 1-year, and an active Chapter participant.

Amount to be Awarded: PENDING. Funding is provided for up to one year and is paid monthly directly to the flight school or instructor upon submission of invoices to the Mount Shasta 99s Treasurer.

To be eligible for the Advanced Pilot Scholarship applicants must:

1. Be an active Chapter participant in good standing, and a member of the Ninety-Nines Inc. for at least 1-year
2. Possess a current medical certificate appropriate for the rating being sought.
3. Be a current certificated pilot.

Amount to be Awarded: $2,000. Funding for either scholarship category is provided for up to one year and is paid monthly directly to the flight school or instructor upon submission of invoices to the Mount Shasta 99s Treasurer. If the scholarship winner has paid for flight training expenses out-of-pocket, she may be reimbursed directly upon submission of paid invoices to the Mount Shasta 99s Treasurer.

Note: Number of scholarships awarded is dependent on available funding from within the Mount Shasta 99s Chapter. At least one scholarship will be awarded for 2024.

Application packages must include the following items:

- Completed application form.
- Three letters of recommendation including: One from the applicant's flight instructor (see form at the end of the application), one from another 99, one from someone who has known the applicant for at least one year.
- Copy of Airman's Certificate(s) and/or FAA Medical Certificate, or CA Driver's License for Light Sport.
- Personal statement (max 1,000 words). See application form for more detail.

Finalists will be notified by email and might be requested to attend a personal interview. Winners will be notified by email no later than March 15th, and will be required to abide by all scholarship rules, and attend the next chapter meeting to receive scholarship.

Detail of Additional Documentation Required

1. Personal essay. In no more than 1000 words, address the following topics: your personal interests, general goals, career goals, and aviation goals; any special qualifications you may have to pursue these goals; what sparked your initial interest in aviation; what aviation-related activities you have participated in (including employment) that mean the most to you; how this scholarship will help you achieve your goals; any obstacles you have had to overcome to start in and continue in flying; and how you would contribute to the Ninety-Nines and to the aviation community in general.
2. Budget Information. Please provide a budget of anticipated expenses for the rating sought, anticipated funding to meet these expenses, and indicating whether you own or intend to rent an aircraft. The budget submitted should be signed by the flight school or independent instructor you plan to use to obtain the rating. The list of funds should include any other anticipated financial aid. If there are any special circumstances regarding your financial need, briefly list them.

TERMS AGREEMENT BELOW MUST BE SIGNED AND RETURNED WITH APPLICATION

If the recipient does not complete the rating appropriate to her award within one year of the award date, her status will be reviewed. Special circumstances will be considered. Copies of her logbook shall be provided periodically upon request, along with a status report from the instructor during this year. If her progress is not acceptable, all fund paid out must be reimbursed to the Mount Shasta Ninety-Nines Aviation Scholarship fund within 60 days of that decision.

The scholarship money will be paid directly to the flight school or independent flight instructor conducting the training with the invoice and description of training (copy of last 3 pages of log book) by the Mount Shasta 99s Treasurer. Invoices must show hours flown and be signed by both the student and instructor, and must be submitted by the flight school or instructor before funds are awarded. A copy of the above listed items must be sent to Lerose Lane, and sent to Mount Shasta 99s, at P. O. Box 814, Palo Cedro, CA 96073.

If the scholarship recipient paid for her training or training related expenses out-of-pocket, she may submit copies of her paid invoices to the Mount Shasta 99s Treasurer. She may be reimbursed if the Scholarship Committee approves the invoices for flight training and/or related expenses.
